SUMMARY

I am a student of the Informatics program at the University of Jember with experience as a Frontend Developer, solving UI/UX challenges across various projects. I have a strong interest in web and mobile application development, with hands-on experience building multiple projects. I am proficient in technologies such as React, Next.js, Express, and React Native, as well as integrating AI into applications through Gemini AI and Open Router. With a solid background in digital solutions development, I am passionate about creating technology that has a positive impact, especially in the fields of education and productivity.
